

Conflict of Interest Policy

Purpose

This policy outlines LBD Tuition Centre intention to identify and monitor all potential or actual conflicts of interest that may affect the delivery and / or assessment of our qualifications now or in the foreseeable future. It has also been designed to support the centre in identifying potential or actual cases of conflict of interest and how to appropriately manage them.

To reduce the risk of a conflict of interest happening we record possible cases that have been identified to date and any arrangements that are in place to prevent them from occurring.

Definitions of Conflict of Interest

For the purpose of this policy we have adopted the definition used by the government regulatory authorities regarding conflicts of interest. A conflict of interest exists in relation to LBD Tuition Centre in the following way:

- Its interests in any activity undertaken by it, on its behalf, or by a member of staff which have the potential to lead it to act contrary to its interests in the development, delivery and award of qualifications in accordance with the requirements of the regulators conditions of recognition
- A person who is connected to the development, delivery or award of qualifications at LBD Tuition Centre has interests in any other activity which have the potential to lead that person to act contrary to their interests in that development, delivery or award and impact on our compliance with the requirements set out by the regulator's conditions of recognition
- An informed and reasonable observer would conclude that either of these situations was the case.

Definition of an Adverse Effect / Management of Incidents

For the purpose of this policy we have adopted the definition used by the government regulatory authorities regarding an adverse effect / management of incidents:

An act, omission, event, incident or circumstance has an adverse effect if it:

- Gives rise to prejudice to learners or potential learners, or adversely affects

- Adversely affects the ability of LBD Tuition Centre to undertake the development, delivery or award of qualifications in accordance with its General Conditions of Recognition and Regulatory Principles
- The standards of qualifications which LBD Tuition Centre makes available or proposes to make available, or
- Public confidence in LBD Tuition Centre qualifications.

Policy

A conflict of interest is where an individual or organisation has competing interests or loyalties. Conflicts of interest may occur in a variety of circumstances and it is possible that people working alongside and/or for LBD Tuition Centre may encounter potential conflicts of interest from time to time.

Examples of Conflicts of Interest

It is not possible to provide a definitive list of examples of conflicts of interest that could compromise the integrity of LBD Tuition Centre assessments and qualifications. However, the following situations could lead to perceived or actual conflicts of interest:

- Personal relationships with family members or friends linked to LBD Tuition Centre and/or centre personnel and/or learners that could influence decision making and qualification outcomes
- Business or commercial interests linked to LBD Tuition Centre and/or a centre that may affect professional judgement
- Mutually beneficial arrangements with centre and LBD Tuition Centre personnel which may compromise an individual's ability to make reliable and professional judgements
- Where favourable arrangements have been negotiated, for example supplying information to certain individuals and/or groups who are preparing for or carrying out an assessment
- A person connected with LBD Tuition Centre or a centre who are engaging in some capacity or have a material financial interest in a business or enterprise that compete with LBD Tuition Centre
- A centre has an interest in any activity which has the potential to lead it to act contrary to its interests in the development, delivery and award of qualifications in accordance with the conditions of the centre
- A situation that may create the appearance of a conflict or present a conflict of interest in connection with a person who has influence over the activities or finances of LBD Tuition Centre.

The existence of such interests, as those above does not necessarily imply conflict, but is likely to give an appearance of conflict and as such should be declared to LBD Tuition Centre.

Conflict of Interest Principles

LBD Tuition Centre staff are obliged to abide by the following principles when identifying and managing potential and/or actual conflicts of interest:

- All management and staff must commit to identifying and managing all potential and/or actual conflicts of interest that may affect LBD Tuition Centre, and in doing so must report these cases to the quality assurance manager
- All staff must be proactive in identifying and managing cases of conflicts of interest that may affect LBD Tuition Centre effectiveness, compliance with regulatory requirements and/or our reputation
- Staff must be open about any cases of potential and/or actual conflicts of interest and not withhold any information or try to present them in a better light (managing conflicts of interest is about preventing cases from occurring that may have an impact on the operational effectiveness and regulatory compliance at LBD Tuition Centre)
- Must strive to identify and deal with conflicts of interest as soon as they are identified
- The control for the management of conflicts of interest must be proportionate to the risks associated with the identified cases.

Responsibility to Register a Conflict of Interest

All individuals this policy applies to have a responsibility to report potential and/or actual cases of conflict of interest and must use the LBD Tuition Centre Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form. This is available to complete and submit to the LBD Tuition Centre admin team.

Centre Responsibility

LBD Tuition Centre centres must comply with this conflict of interest policy and ensure ongoing compliance with the following:

Take steps to avoid or reduce any existing or potential conflicts of interest

Centres must consider how they should manage working arrangements to avoid potential conflicts of interest. For example, a member of staff at the centre undergoing an assessment must be assessed by an unrelated assessor.

Complete and submit a copy of the conflict of interest disclosure form to LBD Tuition Centre and retain a copy for the centre records

All sections on the form must be completed providing as much information as possible, ensure the form includes a signature and date.

Maintain up to date records of all conflict of interest

The centre must maintain accurate records of all existing and/or potential conflicts of interest, details of all mitigating actions must be included.

Update records with any changes in circumstances and notify LBD Tuition Centre of any changes

Centres must notify LBD Tuition Centre of any changes to circumstances relating to any previously declared conflicts of interest and must submit any changes which may lead to new or potential conflicts of interest.

Inspect activities and assessments where there is a conflict of interest that cannot be avoided

Centres must carry out additional quality assurance monitoring activities in cases where conflicts of interest are unavoidable.

Examples:

- Personal or professional relationship between IQA's, assessors, tutors and learners
- All personnel undertaking mandatory regulated qualifications within their own centre
- Instances of mutual quality assurance activities between IQA's.

Procedures for Dealing with Conflicts of Interest

Where any member of personnel at a centre believes there has been a breach of this policy, or if any unforeseen conflicts of interest arise, the management team must be notified and an investigation should be carried out immediately.

The process for the above is as follows:

- The conflict of interest disclosure form must be completed providing as much information as possible, ensuring all sections of the form are complete
- A conflict of interest disclosure form must be completed by all personnel on commencement with a centre declaring any conflict of interest; the form is to be completed even when there are no conflicts of interest to declare. The form should be forwarded to LBD Tuition Centre which will then be held on our database
- If an individual has any changes to their declared circumstances they must notify the centre co-ordinator immediately by completing the conflict of interest disclosure form; the new information should be evaluated, dealt with accordingly and the centre file should be updated.

When all information relating to conflicts of interest are received at LBD Tuition Centre they will be evaluated by the manager to identify if any further action is required. A written report of the outcome will be held on the centre's records and communicated with the co-ordinator and the EQA.

Most situations will not require any further action other than the completion of the conflict of interest disclosure form, however by following this process LBD Tuition Centre can ensure that any follow up action is appropriately managed.

We advise centre co-ordinators to retain original copies of all forms for their own records and submit copies to the management team at LBD Tuition Centre.

If a breach of this policy is also classified as an adverse effect then the management team will inform the regulators in accordance with the procedures for dealing with an adverse effect. They will also inform the regulators of the reasonable steps that have been taken or propose steps to prevent, correct or mitigate the adverse effect.

Examples of actions that could mitigate the conflicts are as follows:

- Person(s) not taking part in the assessment or verification
- Referring decisions that affect the competence of learners to an independent person
- Agreeing not to be involved in a specific aspect of the centres activities or processes
- Referring the matter to the management team at LBD Tuition Centre for advice and guidance.

Monitoring and Review

This policy and its procedures will be reviewed regularly for improvements as part of our Quality Assurance requirements. This will ensure it is fit for purpose, reflects the services we deliver to our centres and that we are providing services which are relevant to the requirements of individual needs.

Contact Details

LBD Tuition Centre

Please click here to view contact details for LBD Tuition Centre.

Last Updated: 14th August 2019